Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- DTI, Screening & Vetting Group (SVG), Traveler Review Branch's (TRB), primary mission is to support the USG's screening community, the Intelligence Community and policy makers with terrorist identities analysis and finished intelligence products, and provide situational awareness to law enforcement, Homeland Security, CT, screening and watchlisting communities on known or suspected terrorists (KST) related to a KST's intent to travel to the US Homeland via US Non-Immigrant and Immigrant Visas, and the DHS Visa Waiver Program.
- The full performance Identity Intelligence Analyst in TRB, is responsible for ensuring consistent policies and procedures are applied to the management of terrorist identities and watchlisting recommendations and assist in resolving issues with terrorist identities that are identified by internal and external users. Identity Intelligence Analysts at this level work with minimal supervisory guidance to perform in-depth all-source research and analysis for specifically defined targets. Applies knowledge of concepts and terminology, policies and directives, organizational missions, and functions, with respect to intelligence capabilities. Leverages connections with their home agency to enhance collaboration between NCTC and other interagency partners. Performs special projects related to new or pilot screening initiatives.
- Plan and perform in-depth all-source research and analysis for specifically defined targets; conduct targeted analysis of known and unknown terrorist personalities, groups and networks in order to reveal identity attributes for future analytical and watchlisting purposes. Present findings as appropriate via written products, graphic presentations or oral briefings.
- Utilize a variety of methodological tools and approaches to gain a comprehensive understanding of known or suspected terrorists (KSTs), including as appropriate, social networking and other "new" media; incorporate policies, strategies, tactics, techniques, procedures and mechanisms to reveal the true identity of individuals, personas, or groups by analyzing and exploiting data related to sets of specific identity attributes to build the most comprehensive terrorist identity record available to the USG.
